

Acid42 Combines World + Electronica

bio

Acid42 is Lionel Valdellon, a one-man production outfit based in Northern California, fusing Philippine and Asian influences with Western beats and structures. His jazzy, ethnic electronic music has graced everything from ballet productions and theater, to indie film, TV soap operas, and commercial jingles. His live performances have spanned the globe from the World Expo 2005 in Japan, to dance events, bars, and art show openings in Manila, all the way to private parties in San Diego, Brunei and Malaysia.
