ABOUT GRAYSTAR

GRAYSTAR is a highly-original and progressive 5 piece Seattle rock band, recently relocated from the UK. The band has received frequent airplay on BBC Radio and rave reviews from radio presenters and top music critics who have described Graystar's music as "Lennonesque", "Beautiful", and "Fantastic".

The band was formed in Liverpool by singer-songwriter Dominic James in 2003. Graystar's music is written with a depth of emotion, entwined within the melodies of the songs. The music has an ethereal beauty and restless originality that etches its way into your heart and truly defies comparison.

Graystar begin 2010 with a shows in Seattle at the Sunset Tavern on January 13th, and have been invited to support touring band The Wooden Sky at the High Dive on February 24th. The band are currently recording 4 new songs to be released on their forthcoming EP to be released in March.

Review of Album a Million Pieces

BBC DJ Dave Monks

"Fantastic, I just love it"

Edinburgh Evening News Review

Gary Flockhart,

"Graystar are standing out among the usual identikit indie outfits with their atmospheric music. Huge potential"

BBC Radio Scotland

Janice Forsyth

"Beautiful songs"

Review of Graystar Single

Is This Music

"A depth of songwriting that is overlooked by a lot of bands these days"

BBC Radio Review

BBC DJ Spencer Leigh

"As many of the new bands have little to offer, it is a privilege to come across a band which looks good, plays well and performs highly original songs."
